

CLEVELAND'S KEY OPERATOR DEAD

Alan W. Austin, W. U. Telegrapher, Passes Away in Medford

Alan W. Austin, for forty-one years an employee of the Western Union Telegraph Company and for the past fifteen years manager of the company's office in the Boston Post, died yesterday afternoon at his home, 335 Main street, Medford, after a brief illness.

The most notable service in the long career of Mr. Austin was that given in 1915 when, as a representative of the Western Union, he lived at Gray's, Buzzards Bay, at the summer home of President Cleveland and took and transmitted all the numerous messages that the ex-President issued at the time in the conduct of the Democratic presidential political campaign.

Mr. Austin had a national reputation among the members of his craft. Without dispute, he was accorded the honor of being the "speed king" in the ranks of the key workers of the country.

EXPERT PRESS OPERATOR.
He was an expert press operator and as such was known to telegraph operators throughout the United States. In receiving big national news over the wire, he displayed his wonderful ability as a press operator and skillful craftsman.

Mr. Austin was born in Portland, Me., and having attended the public schools there he engaged as a messenger boy and apprentice in the Portland office of the Western Union Telegraph Company under his father, Michael J. Austin, who for twenty-two years was manager of the office.

Before entering upon man's estate Mr. Austin came to Boston and worked at the main office of the Western Union Company. When a young man he was employed as a commercial telegrapher in the employ of Lee, Higginson & Co.

He first became a press operator when he engaged to work for the Boston Journal more than thirty years ago. When the Boston Herald was in Newspaper Row he had charge of its telegraph department and went with that paper when it moved to Tremont street. He went to the Boston Post as the manager of the telegraph department in 1908, and from that time to his illness he occupied that position.

FRIEND OF NEWSPAPERMEN.
Mr. Austin was known to practically every newspaper man in Newspaper Row. He was esteemed by all for his quiet, friendly deportment and his available disposition. He was ever ready to do a kindness, and those who befriended him in the conduct of his office and his daily association with men, were legion.

He was a member of Transatlantic Lodge, Knights of Pythias, Charlestown, and Mount Vernon Lodge, A. F. and A. M. of Medford. He was also a member of the telegraph operators' associations.

Not long after establishing himself in Boston, Mr. Austin married Mrs. Edith E. Dodge. He is survived by his wife, two daughters, Mrs. Charlotte Caswell, wife of Dr. Caswell, and Mrs. Florence E. Grant, and two grandchildren, Doris Caswell and Alan Austin Grant.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at his residence. The services will be conducted by the Rev. R. Percy Bluff of Chelsea, a minister of the Universalist denomination. Interment will be at Oak Grove Cemetery, Medford.

TURKEY PRICES UP TO 65 CENTS

Despite the Large Supply of Thanksgiving Birds Cost Will Remain High

New York, Nov. 4.—Well that's over, how about the supply of turkeys? The great American electorate having assumed itself that the country is saved for another four years, or headed for the bow-wow, now concerns itself with the problem of how to provide the place de resistance for the next festival on the calendar. The answer is that there will be plenty of turkeys, fat and cheaper, that is, if you consider prices ranging from 45 to 65 cents a pound cheap. Time was and within the recollection of stomachs which still retain their youthful zest, that the bird made famous by the Pilgrim Fathers could be bought for 15 cents a pound.

Should a husband forgive the wife who has erred?
Mr. Kenyon, whose wife confessed on the witness stand that she had had a secret love affair with Dr. Tetlow, whom she afterwards shot, says he will forgive American women.

MRS. KENYON'S TURN TO FORGIVE.

I think Mr. Kenyon has done the right thing in forgiving his wife. I have had experience of married life and I do believe that it is the man's fault if his wife goes wrong. I don't know how many married men there are true in their marriage vows; everything and admitted that it was as much to blame as the doctor was, instead of committing the error she did, then Mr. Kenyon would have been justified in attacking her as he has assumed. It appears that she was more to blame than she deserves.

HARDING MAY PICK CHILD

Boston Author, Divorced in 1916, Suggested as President-Elect's Secretary

Reports from Marine, O., that President-elect Harding has definitely selected Richard Washburn Child, divorced husband of the suffrage leader, Elizabeth Wood, as his private secretary in the White House have started rumors to the effect that the pair, which divorces and divorces have played in the political campaign just ended.

It is recalled that Elizabeth Wood, former Housewife, a successful rival for the presidency, is a divorced woman, and that Mr. Harding himself was a woman who was married to a divorcee from her first husband.

The rumor which has not been confirmed of all, but which appears to be well substantiated, at the selection of Child for the important post of private secretary, immediately recalled the story of his own divorce, and the mysterious "woman in the case" which attracted so much attention in 1916, when the divorce was granted in New York city.

CHILD LIVED IN BOSTON.
The action of Mrs. Child in filing her petition for freedom from her husband was first known to the public when she was in New York City, and it was then that she was known to be a graduate of the Harvard law school and a practicing attorney, as well as a divorcee.

With her husband, she lived in a small apartment in Boston, and it was there that she met Mr. Harding, who was then a member of the Senate. It was at this time that she was known to be a divorcee, and it was also at this time that she was known to be a woman who was married to a divorcee.

It was here also that her early divorce was known to the public, and it was also at this time that she was known to be a woman who was married to a divorcee.

And then, in March of 1916, Mrs. Child filed her petition for freedom from her husband, and it was at this time that she was known to be a divorcee, and it was also at this time that she was known to be a woman who was married to a divorcee.

LOW INDEMNITY U. S. ATTITUDE

Will Restore Alien Property and Insist France Modify Her Demands on Germany

Washington, Nov. 4.—Not only will the United States restore the property of German citizens seized during the war and now held intact by the Alien Property Custodian, but it will insist that the indemnity demanded by the Allies, particularly France, be fixed at an irreducible minimum. It was learned in high diplomatic circles.

In announcing last week that she would return all property seized in France and the German Empire, the United States was not only restoring the property of German citizens, but it was also restoring the property of German citizens.

A statement made by Louis Aubert, an associate of Andre Zardus in the former French High Commission to the United States, and published in the French political weekly L'Europe Nouvelle, a few days ago, is regarded here as a direct threat to bring America into line on the side of France.

It is said that if France is compelled to relinquish any part of the indemnity she maintains is due her from Germany, the United States will be compelled to relinquish a corresponding portion of the debt due it from France.

SHAYER O'BRIEN WINS FROM JOE CONNOLLY

Shayer O'Brien of South Boston defeated Joe Connolly of Charlestown in the main bout of the Commercial A. C. meeting at the Grand Opera House.

The bout went the full ten rounds, but was fairly even for half the distance, but from the sixth on Shayer's one-way line and there went over on the last leg. There was much flinching by both men all the way.

NOW we want and don't it. Got ourselves in all wrong with Riley. Who's Riley? Why, Riley's the world's greatest office boy. Does everything for the editors that the editors don't know how to do themselves. Riley came to the office of the "Loveliest Girl Editor" and registered a complaint. Said his staff of bids were worn out tugging in pictures of Boston's fairest. You see we asked the Boston girls in yesterday's paper to get busy and send in a Rock of photographs. By noon the flood was on and it hasn't stopped yet. However, we want to get Riley's elusive goal. Keep it up, folks. The more the merrier. And remember, all have an even chance. Intellectual beauty is what the Boston American thinks is characteristic of Greater Boston and New England girls. And from the hundreds of photographs are coming in we feel satisfied that the readers agree with us. Riley says he didn't know there were so many "wonderful creatures" in Boston. Get that? He's actually a good pretty talk rather early in life. Get in line today for a part of that $5,000 in real money. $5,000 with nothing to do but send in your picture. Address it today to the "Loveliest Girl Editor," Boston American, No. 80 Summer St., Boston, Mass.

AERIAL WEDDING—Louise Pison Wolfe and Samuel P. Baur were married in a seaplane above Atlantic City the other day. The pilot shut off the motor while 3,000 feet in the air and glided to earth as the ceremony was performed.

NUITY PEOPLE—That's what they are called by Albert Harrison, who originated the idea of fashioning this funny novelty out of peanuts. Try it at home.

CAUGHT BY THE CAMERA'S EYE—This is one of the most sensational action pictures ever obtained. It shows Andy Tollen, University of Southern California right end, being tackled during an end run by Roberts, Occidental College halfback. To look at the photograph one would bet their best necktie that friend Tollen was going to get well busted up, but he didn't.

OLDEST MEMBER OF UPPER HOUSE—The Earl of Duncraig, who recently passed his ninety-third year, is the oldest member of the House of Lords. He no longer attends sessions.

HELL! HELL!—No, Archibald, this is not the fourth stage of the dance of the seven veils. Lulu La Vina, danseuse—theater Queen Lulu is taking in her wash.

BEAUTY!—As seen through the eyes of Indiana on reservation near Mewe, North Dakota. This debutante is named "Bright Lights." She uses more paint than American women.

CAUGHT IN THE LANGLIDE—Among the prominent Democrats who went down in defeat Tuesday is apparently Senator Phelan of California.

INTERESTING—Cartwheel at Olympic Exposition in London is equipped with new bearings which allow it to be turned by an axle from the line of a broken image of a woman. We know some women whose talk could move a whole wagon.

THE OLD GATE AT VERDUN—Members of the Twenty-sixth Division will be interested to know that peace has healed the sores of the picturesque city in the Meuse. The old gate was built in the sixteenth century and has seen many long lines of soldiers file across the bridge that spans the flowing waters. What tales of war's horrors these old walls could tell. Thanks to the vote of the American people Tuesday our boys will not tread these planks in uniform in the future. And we feel sure that the old gate at Verdun should commemorate us upon our deathbed if it could but speak.

PRIZE BOSTON TERRIER—Mrs. A. G. McKee, with "Just Grand," who won a first prize at the Boston Terrier Dog Show, held at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York last Friday. This class of dogs is a great favorite in New York, as in Greater Boston, and the annual show never fails to bring forth a large entry list of aristocratic canines.

(c) Underwood & Underwood

HINT!—Destroy the papers, Belinda, for Milton Cartson, the handwriting expert, is on our trail with his trusty magnifying glass. Once he lumps the ink you splashed on that certificate, all is lost. Carlson is now engaged on the Jacob O. Denton murder case. He wants to know what happened the dead man's will was written on.

BRITISH MINERS

ORDERED BACK

By Universal Service.
London, Nov. 4.—The balloting by the striking coal miners resulted in rejection of a settlement by a matority of $650, it was announced today. The strike leaders, however, decided that this majority was not sufficient to last for the continuance of the strike and therefore ordered the men to resume work.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC'S OIL LAND HOLDINGS

Land holdings in California by the Southern Pacific aggregate 181,999 acres and 13,357 have been found already to be oil bearing. They are valued by experts at $15,000 per acre. There are doubtless great oil tracts on the other 142,996 acres.

The value of all Southern Pacific land holdings in that state is variously estimated at $100,000,000.

Railway Mail Accruals
According to reports to the Interstate Commerce Commission increased wage accruals charged into railroad expenses for the month of August totalled $79,277,697. While 187 Class I roads and fifteen switching and terminal companies report that gross increased $83,071,497 in August they showed a deficit of $105,227,617 for the month.
